Three letters were found on the dressing-case, addressed as follows: Charles B. Hubbell, 2 Wall street; Mark H. Hubbell Wayne, Pa.: Horace Sherman, 61 Main street, North Adams, Mass. On the corner of each was written "Please deliver."

Hubbell came to the hotel three days ago from Philadelphia. He drank considerably, and appeared to be despondent. Tuesday night one of the hallboys found him fooling with a revolver in his room. The man was intoxicated, and the boy took the revolver away and gave it to the night clerk.

Last night Hubbell got his revolver back again, and going to his room used it with deadly effect.

Charles B. Hubbell, of 2 Wall street, is a brother of the suicide. He is a lawyer and a member of the Board of School Commissioners.

Hubbell was a powerfully built man, apparently about forty-five years old.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., Nov. 15.—F. R. Hubbell was formerly employed as driver for the American Express Company, but later worked for Burlingsme & Darby. He left them Oct. 17 and went to Wayne, Pa., where his brother Mark resides.

A few days ago Mr. Darby received a letter from Mark stating that his brother wanted to return here to work, and it is supposed that he was on his way back when he committed suicide. He married a daughter of Eber Sherman, of this town, and his wife died about two years ago. He leaves three children, two of whom live with Mr. Sherman.

FIERCE FIRES IN COLORADO. Boulder and the Mining Camps

Threatened with Destruction. BOULDER, Col., Nov. 15 .- A flerce fire burning in the pine timber on the mountains west of this city. It started last tains west of this city. It started last night in a sawmill, and has already burned over an area of several square miles and is spreading rapidly.

Ward, a mining camp nineteen miles from here, of 1,000 people, and Gold Hill, a camp of 509 inhabitants, six miles nearer Boulder, are in danger of being destroyed. Many of the inhabitants have fled.

Gold Hill has been abandoned to the flames. Before leaving the place the residents stored their most valuable effects in the mining tunnels, which they scaled up. The population of Gold Hill numbered about 500, most of whom are on their way to this city. A large force is fighting the flames, and it is believed Ward will be saved.

The loss already caused by the fire is estimated at $100,000.
